And we're off with a Whiz Bang - transported to an honest to goodness, turn-of-the-century Appalachian Vaudeville house, complete with ally-opp acrobat acts, fire-eating, singing sisters, animal curiosities and music from the railroads. For those of you with an aching thirst for the fountain of youth and eternal wellness, our Boon Dock Medicine Show offers tonics, elixirs and remedies that are sure to cure what ails. Through the eyes of Admiral Tolliver, a veteran to the Silo Circuit, audiences share in the history of Vaudeville, Randolph County and have the opportunity to meet the types of unique headliners who landed in these mountains as a result of the iron highway! So join The Old Brick Playhouse in celebrating their fifteenth anniversary with Miz Dunkin's Appalachian Whiz-Bang, a rare blend of clean, hilarious, family fun promised to inspire laughter all the way down the line.
